People-etc consulting specialises in people solutions within executive search

What information do we collect about you?

We collect information about you when you communicate with us via a CV, telephone, video interview and email conversation. From time to time we may need to update information on you if there has been a change of circumstances. The information collected with your authorisation will be sent to the client who has advertised the role you have applied for

How do we use information about you?

In terms of Talent Search, we will inform you of an opportunity and we will contact you to discuss your CV and details including contact details, where possible we will furnish you with full details of the client and remuneration package, albeit some clients wish to remain confidential until interview stage. We will gain your authorisation first before we share your profile including contact details with the client. For many international clients they sometimes specify the need for a photograph, video, date of birth, male / female and family if they are to relocate with you as this may form part of a future offer. The client may also wish to know your current salary package and reason for leaving your current/ previous role.

How do you access your information and apply updates?

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your personal information, please email or write to us. We may make a small charge for this service.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

You also have the right to ask for your information to be deleted.

If you believe there is a problem with the way we are handling your data, you have a right to complain to the ICO – see <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.

How do we look after your information?

We store the personal information you have sent to us in a secure database which is backed up every night. We hold a copy of CV pages you send to us in a secure cloud service via an app provider. We use secure communication methods to access your information using secret passwords.

If and when you ask for your personal information to be changed or deleted, we make best efforts to do so within the same week as we receive your request. When you request deletion, your information is deleted from our operational database. Your information cannot then be recalled should you change your mind. Your information will also disappear from backup copies after one month.
